Introduction to Fundraising

Tuesday, April 2, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

$40 before March 12; $50 after March 12

Small nonprofits often do not have development or fundraising staffs, yet fundraising is vital to those organizations. This full-day class will help you develop a fundraising plan and teach skills that leaders and board members can use to create long-term sustainability.

Nonprofit Finance for Non-Finance People; Expanded Edition

Tuesday, April 30, 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

$35 before April 16; $45 after April 16

This class covers basic fiscal responsibilities for nonprofit organizations including tax filing, accounting terms, financial statements, budget preparation, internal control structure, and policies and procedures.

Our most requested annual class is offered in an expanded format. Julia Kyser will delve deeper into topics and allow for more audience participation.

Nonprofit Law 101: Foundational Basics

Tuesday, May 14, 9-11 a.m.

$15 before April 30; $25 after April 30

This presentation will give nonprofit leaders a high-level overview of the most common legal pitfalls and questions our 150+ local nonprofit clients face, briefly covering the topics of governance, compliance, employment and intellectual property.
