

Interact for Health and InterAct for Change Required Disclosures Form

YES	Conflict of Interest: 1. Does the grantseeking organization have any of the following:
		Parent Organization?
		Related party organizations?
		Related for-profit organizations?
	Related private practice organizations?
	If yes to any of above, identify.
	2. Are any key project staff engaged in private practices or professional p corporations? If yes , describe; is this a non-profit organization?
	3. Will the proposed program generate referrals to other organizations or profess
		If yes, to whom, how and with what financial arrangements?
		4. Will the proposed program generate a database (clients, donors, utilization, health status, or other information useful to health care providers or planners)?
		If yes, how will it be used; will there be access charges, who can access it; and, how will client confidentiality be maintained?
		5. Will the proposed program generate intellectual property (copyrighted or patented material)?
		If yes, who will own it and how will royalties be paid?
		6. Is, or will professional or executive compensation be tied to performance in obtaining grant funds or revenue targets including grant funds? If yes, disclose
		7. Do any board members, officers, professionals or executives have personal or business connections with Interact for Health/InterAct for Change or its Trustees (lists attached)?
		Other Funding:
		8. Has other grant funding been obtained for this project?
		If yes, identify source, amount and restrictions.
		9. Will application be made for other funding for this project?
		If yes, identify including those under consideration
		10. Have all potential sources of operating revenue been identified in the financial section of the application?
		If no, identify
Notice

If funding or conflict of interest status changes aft Interact for Health/InterAct for Change must be no	• • •
Chief Executive Officer	Date

GRANTDIS.CCF Revised : September 9, 2013